- Teacher should be a friend, philosopher and guide to the students but at the same time should keep reasonable distance from the students for the maintenance of discipline.

Code of Conduct and Discipline for Students:

The College does not aim at merely stuffing the minds of the scholars with facts and figures. Its objective, on the other hand is to mould them into fine and disciplined citizens of the motherland. Therefore the college lays exceptional emphasis in the maintenance of discipline. The students are advised to make it a habit to lead a life of discipline in the college and at the home; this will ensure the success and distinction in their future career.

1. The students should be courteous in their dealing with one another and with the employees of the college. Let your love, thought and action embrace fellow beings. They should use dignified language while taking or addressing others.

2. The students should attend the college classes regularly and be punctual on all college functions. Punctuality is to success what roots are to a tree.

3. Students reaching the college earlier should not gather in front of the class rooms or in verandas. They should avoid making noise near the classroom or college office.

4. Movements from one class to another should invariably be orderly, disciplined and dignified. At the end of a period the students going to a class room should stand quietly in queue on the side of the entrance till the students already occupying the room completely vacate it.

5. In vacant periods, the students should go to the reading room or library and utilize their time in the study of magazines, periodicals and newspapers. They should not stand near the class room or in the verandas and create unnecessary noise. It disturbs the teaching work in nearby class rooms.

6. Inside the classes perfect discipline and order must be maintained and the instructions of the teacher should be strictly carried out, for he is your superior and well-wisher. Any misbehavior in the class room is tantamount to misconduct and the students must maintain the sanctity and decorum expected of good scholars.

7. The students should show proper respect to the Principal and the teachers in and outside the classrooms and should carry out their instructions with sincerity.

8. The student shall get off from their cycles/ scooters at the main gate and place the cycle scooters properly with the caretaker.

9. The students should not blow scooter/ motorcycle horns in the college campus.

10. Smoking/playing cards/drinking alcohol and use of any other intoxicant is not permitted on the college campus.

11. The student should cultivate the queue habit while they go to see the principal, or to pay dues in account office, to get the books issued from the library, etc.

12. The college property should in no way be tampered with or disfigured as this property belongs to you. The defacing of walls with pencil marks or ink is strictly prohibited. Theft, forgery, vandalism, or damage of any type of college property shall not be permitted under any circumstances and the student involved shall be severely punished.

13. Quarrels and disputes with fellow students are to be avoided. In case of a dispute, the students should not take the law in their own hands but they should report it to the principal/tutor immediately.

14. The students are expected to come to college dressed in simple clothes. Tight clothes, sleeveless shirts, ornaments or use of cosmetics are not permitted. A student is liable to disciplinary action if he/she is having hippie, mushroom haircuts, trimming beards, ear rings and any other ornaments and is not participating in celebration of social religious functions.
15. The student found guilty of infringement of the above rules and misconduct shall be punished in the form of heavy fines or even expulsion from the college depending on the nature of the guilt. All concessions and stipends granted to such defaulters shall be withdrawn automatically.
16. The students are not allowed to collect money from their fellow student/staff for any purpose whatsoever. They are also not allowed to hold any meeting/function of any kind without the prior permission from the principal. Any violation to this effect will lead to immediate expulsion from the college and other drastic action.
